A STRONG MAN.

There is a man on the Darson river, translation that we possess of the Bible into Sanskrit. In the life of Dr. Wenger, which has just been published Dr. Underhill, of the Baptist society, we find recorded all the details of the work of that noble-hearted, that devoted missionary, in translating the Bible iato Sanskrit. But if it is our duty, as God's trustees in India, to bestow upon the natives the Bible translated into their own languages it is also our duty to acquaint ourselves, which are at present being translated and published by the University of Oxford.

There is a man on the Darson fiver, gospel; "Get rid of your body as the greatest of all curses," says the Buddhist. "We are God's workmanship," says the Christian gospel; "and God works in us and through us," "We are our own workmanship," says the gospel of Buddha, "and no on the Darson fiver, below Dayton, named Angela Cordella, who claims to be the strongest man in the world.
